My Beloved Boys

Imagine you are John Proctor and you are given the opportunity to draft a letter to your children before the magistrates call you to the gallows (the scaffold where one hangs for a crime). This is your opportunity to help your children understand the events that lead to your death.

Your letter must EXPLAIN, but is not limited to:

Paragraph 1-introduction
Paragraph 2-what happened in the town of Salem in 1692 from your (John’s) point of view.
Paragraph 3-how you and your family were involved in the events.
Paragraph 4-why you chose to die rather than to live.
Paragraph 5-conclusion

For the purposes of this assignment, assume that none of your children will be given the letter until he reaches age 10. You must be faithful to the events in the story, but sensitive to the tender age of your children.
